President's Message:

What an awesome time of year to soak in the wonders of the Thanksgiving and Christmas season. A great way to do this is by supporting the two awesome quilt shops we have right here in Sioux City!

Heart and Hand Dry Goods on Hamilton Blvd in the Market Place Shopping Center is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.—5:30 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m.—5 p.m. Check out their website for classes and specials as well as upcoming extended holiday hours @ www.heartandhand.com!

Granny Stitches on Floyd Blvd. is open Monday through Friday 9:30 a.m.—5:00 p.m. and Saturday 9:30 a.m.—3 p.m. November 1-10 save 30% on all machines, embroidery software, accessories, and notions. Check out their website for classes and more specials @ <http://www.grannysstitcheswithviking.com>!

Happy shopping and sewing everyone!

Next Meeting

Monday, November 14, 2016

7:00 p.m.

Redeemer Lutheran Church
Lakeport Road

We will be making homemade best press, all supplies provided. Everyone gets to mix their own bottle of spray and we have 6 scents to choose from. If we have extra spray bottles after everyone has one, you can purchase and mix an extra for $3. We will also have an "open mic" so bring your tips or shortcuts to share while we are mixing. For example: A favorite ruler or Web site, things you can use at home to make quilting easier, or a way to get stains out of a quilt that we all need to know!

Siouxland Samplers Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes October 10, 2016

Greeters: Anietra Janssen, Robyn Wright, and Deb Carson

October monthly mini made by: Carol Hennings

October monthly mini winner: Sheila Rogeness

November monthly mini will be made by: Mary Baklund

November Greeters: JoAnn Sadler and Jane Vereen

Andrea had the slide show going to inform all quilters of what is going on in the guild.

Andrea Hsu, President, called the meeting to order. Andrea welcomed everyone. 60 members, guests Vivian McPherson and her daughter Dawn and new member Lori Salem. .

Andrea asked if anyone had any joyous events or concerns they would like to share.

- June DeVries daughter will receive her Master's degree this month.

Meeting Minutes: There being no changes noted, the minutes were approved as printed in the newsletter.

Treasurer's Report: Approved as printed in the newsletter.

Announcements:

- The Fons & Porter magazine renewal subscriptions are due thru the month of November. Please fill out the form and submit to Michele Matney with checks made payable to Fons & Porter Magazine. The guild will receive $5 out of the $20 renewal fee.
- If you are interested in donating children's winter hats, gloves/mittens, please bring to the next meeting and give to Sherry Book who will deliver them to area schools.
- Guild brochure has been updated to be given to new members and have for the quilt show. Andrea Hsu asked about the printing of these brochures, several places were mentioned at a considerable price. Renee Weinberg offered her husband's office to print the brochures in color, free of charge. Vote was taken to accept Renee's offer to print the brochures for the guild. Thank You Renee for this generous offer.

Committee Reports:

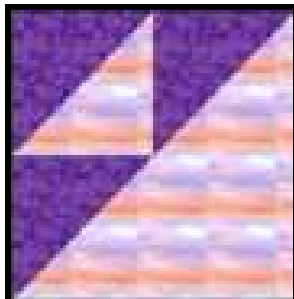

Girls Inc: JoAnn Sadler is still in need of ladies to help teaching the girls to sew. They' meet on Tuesdays from 6:00 – 7:00. Ideally would like to have a mentor for each girl. We have five students each week, please volunteer your time as the girls really enjoy learning.

Sunshine Quilts: Alyce King showed a rag quilt that was made at the last sweat shop. Any and all designs are accepted quilts should measure at least 40" X 60", or twin size. Alyce has 80/20 batting for the quilts. Call her and she will cut it to size and you can pick it up at a Guild meeting or her home. These quilts are given to the Red Cross, Hospice, nursing homes, and women's shelters.

Quilt Show: LaToma Hauff showed us the Barn Raising Log Cabin raffle quilt top. Quilters were urged to turn in a bid for quilting the quilt. The quilt is 86" X 102". Turn bids into Vicky Johnson as soon as possible. The raffle quilt is Guild's biggest fundraiser.

Sweat Shop: Vickie Wilson and Shelly Tiefenthaler have volunteered to organize the next Sweat Shop to relieve June DeVries. Vicky would like to begin collecting donated 5 inch squares at each Guild meeting that will be used at the 2017 Sweat Shop.

Festival of Trees: LaToma Hauff showed some of the tree ornaments that have been donated so far. Please bring your ornaments by the November Guild meeting. Auction is held in November. No date has been set to decorate the tree. Lisa Beeson, Shelly Tiefenthaler, and Mary Stoneburg received a fat 8th for turning in their ornaments early.

Quilting Bee: Leslie Walker reported that the shirts are being ordered. Vicky Johnson brought a sample of the Sport Tek shirt, heather navy with coral lettering, and silver wings on the bees. Registrations were sent out this past month to complete and turn in at Guild meetings. Registration payment of $40 should be made payable to the June E. Nylén Cancer center, checks will not be cashed until the time of the Bee. Checks for the t-shirts payable to Vicky Johnson, as she will be ordering the shirts. Quilters who previously attended the event will get first chance at registration. Please get your registration to the Guild by the November meeting.

Andrea opened the floor for nominations and the following members volunteered:

Vice President: Vickie Wilson and Shelly Tiefenthaler

Secretary: Vicki Williams

Newsletter: Mary Baklund

These positions will be voted on at the November meeting, with the new officers coming and shadowing the current officers. The new officers will take over at the January 2017 meeting. Thank you ladies for volunteering your services to the Guild.

Program: Sheila Rogeness introduced Vivian McPherson, a former Guild member. Vivian brought a small portion of the quilts she had finished she had throughout her 60 years of quilting. In the last two years Vivian has given over 200 quilts away to family and friends. Vivian likes to use 80/20 batting and has used the studio 180 ruler to create star quilts, and loves her fabric cutting machine. She usually sews 2-3 quilt tops each month.

We enjoyed Show and Tell.

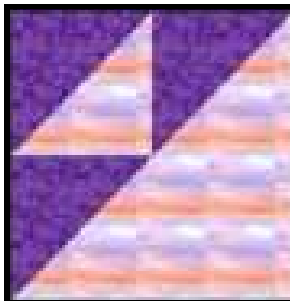

Meeting was adjourned.
